DEATHS.

—Mr. Claiborne Lisle died at his home in Winchester Tuesday morning at 1:30 o'clock. The funeral services were held at the grave in the Winchester cemetery Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Elders R. French and J. W. Harding. The pallbearers were the grandchildren, one from each family, viz: Charles Lisle, Harvey Lisle, Ben Duckworth, N. W. Lisle, Sam Hodgkin, Jr., and Ernest Lisle.

Mr. Lisle was born in Clark county on July 30, 1820, nearly 90 years ago. His father was James Lisle, a son of John Lisle, who moved to Clark county from Virginia about 1777. The maiden name of Claiborne Lisle's mother was Nancy George. His grandmother was a daughter of Valentine Martin, said to have been born in the old fort at Boonesboro. Mr. Lisle was the last of a family of eight. He was married to Esther Hampton in 1841. She died May 26, 1887. They were the parents of eleven children. Five are now living: J. D. Lisle, Mrs. Henry Oliver, Thomas Lisle, Mrs. Minerva Hodgkin, and D. C. Lisle, of this city.

—Oliver Clifford Leach, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Leach, of near Centerville, died at an early hour Wednesday morning, of appendicitis. The funeral services were held from the residence yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Elder Urcey E. Morgan. The interment was in the Paris cemetery. The pallbearers were Joseph Huffman, Steve Leach, Frank Cox, McDaniel Burberry, W. S. Arnsperger and James Whitsitt.

Buys Bunch of Mules.

Bert McClintock, of the firm of Peed & McClintock, of Millersburg, bought in Montgomery county this week, thirty head of mules, paying from $175 to $240 a head.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Mr. James Ingels, of Chicago, son of Mr. W. H. Ingels, of this city, was married at noon Tuesday, to Miss Mary Young, of Nicholasville, Ky., at the home of the bride. The wedding was quite a surprise to the many old friends in this city. Miss Fannie Ingels, of Caldwell College, Danville, sister of the groom was among the wedding guests. Mr. Ingels is a popular and worthy young man and before leaving Paris eight years ago was a clerk for J. W. Davis & Co. He now holds a responsible position in the Street Cleaning Bureau of the Chicago city government. Mr. Ingels and bride left immediately after the ceremony for their future home in Chicago.

—Miss Georgia Matthews, of Lexington, and Mr. Herbert Berry, of this city, were united in marriage Monday evening, at Jeffersonville, Ind. It was an elopement as both of the young people were under age. The bride is a handsome and attractive young lady, while the groom is a worthy and industrious young man, being employed as bookkeeper by Abnee & Muston Tobacco Company. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Berry, of Carlisle.

—The following announcement cards have been issued: "Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Brown announce the marriage of their daughter, Roberta Spellman, to Mr. Henry J. Grosche, Wednesday, January the nineteenth, nineteen hundred and ten, Dayton, Ky. At home after February fifteenth, Paris, Ky."

The Cost of Living.

The things that contribute in greatest degree to swell the cost of living in the United States is thus briefly set forth by the Philadelphia Press:

A tariff levied ostensibly for revenue, but actually to advance the price of commodities in the home market; Costly naval and military outlay; Inflated pension payments; Extravagance in all departments of the public service, and Vast municipal expenditure. Billions of dollars are thus annually drawn from the pockets of the people in the shape of higher rents, costlier clothing, dearer food and increased taxes. The distance between producer and consumer is further increased by the intrusion of combinations and hungry and exacting go-betweens who all compel enormous tribute.

Is it any wonder it is such a far cry from the ox to the steak? From the sheep to the blanket?

Of course there are contributing causes of dearth—the swelling supply of gold; the drift from the land to the marts; the growth of demand consequent upon disproportionate growth of population to growth of production. They do not explain why it costs more to live in the United States than in any other civilized country. When we pull down the barriers to trade we shall also pull down prices. When we restore economical government we shall restore lower cost of living.

Cantrill Defends His State.

Provoked by published charges that the Burley Tobacco Society controlled the courts and Legislature of Kentucky, Representative J. Campbell Cantrill, in an impassioned speech in the House, defended the people of the State as law-abiding. He declared that in opposing the tobacco trust they had exercised their rights in a lawful manner. Mr. Cantrill contended that as there was but one buyer of tobacco, the raisers of that product were justified in combining so that there would be one seller. Extracts from his speech can be seen elsewhere in this issue.

The Premium Duck Story.

An astonishing accident is reported to have occurred at Des Moines, Iowa, when Radiumathus, a duck which had taken prizes at the recent Iowa poultry show, exploded into several hundred pieces, one of which struck Silas Perkins in the eye, destroying the sight. The cause of the explosion was the eating of yeast which was placed in a pan on the back porch. The dish tempted his duckship who was taking a Sunday morning stroll. Upon returning from church Mr. Perkins discovered his prize duck in a somewhat loggy condition. Tell-tale marks around the pan of yeast gave him his clue. He was about to pick up the bird when the latter exploded with a loud report and Mr. Perkins ran into the house holding both hands over his eye. A surgeon was called who found that the eyeball had been penetrated by a fragment of flying duck, and gave no hope of saving the optic.

Changes in Criminal Laws.

Our Senator, Claude Thomas, has introduced three bills, which, if passed, will revolutionize the criminal proceedings of the State. One is the indeterminate penalty for all crimes except where the penalty is life or death sentence, the jury to try the question of guilty and the judge to fix the time. The separation of the young and first offenders from the hardened criminals. The establishment of courses of instruction in an English education and trades schools; the right of a convict to share in his earnings. A parole system by which before a prisoner is paroled, work for six months shall be provided by his friends and the paroled prisoner must report once each month in writing. These have worked well in other States and it is believed will do well here.

Putting Rollers Under Republicans.

A bill that is calculated to put the rollers under the few remaining Republicans about the City Hall in Louisville, was introduced in the Senate Tuesday by Senator Mark Ryan.

The measure provides for the abolishment of the present City Attorney's office in Louisville and the creation in lieu thereof of the office of Corporation Counsel, with two assistants, the duties to be identical with those now performed by City Attorney Clayton B. Blakey and his assistants, Huston Quinn and Joseph S. Lawton.

The salaries are to be the same $5,000 a year for the Corporation Counsel, $3,000 for the First Assistant, and $2,500 for the Second Assistant. The appointment is lodged in the hands of the Mayor, the appointees to hold office at his pleasure. An emergency clause is attached and the measure will become effective on its enactment.

Legislators Want Their Pay.

The members of the General Assembly, who only receive a pittance for their services, $5 a day; have been unable to receive any pay and besides have had the depleted condition of the State's treasury dinned in their ears so much the last two weeks, that the introduction of a joint resolution making the rest of the State officials take "pot luck" with them is seriously contemplated.

It is planned to appropriate the money on hand among the State officials including the members of the General Assembly in proportion to their salaries. Many of the solons, who admit they are on a hand-to-mouth basis for the lack of their per diem, say that it is only fair that the other officials who draw fat salaries from the State, should be willing to share the money with them, and that no real objection can be advanced to this method of each getting a part of the money that is coming to them.

Shoots That White Rhino.

News from the Smithsonian African Scientific expedition was brought to Butiabs, Lake Albert, Friday by means of a native runner and a canoe service up the Bar-El-Jebel river. All of the party are reported as well with the exception of three hunters recruited in Africa, who suffered from dysentery. Col. Roosevelt shot a white rhino cow and a young rhino on the first night that the party was at Camp Rhino, its present stopping place on the Congo side of the Bar-El-Jebel river.

"A Runaway Match."

This is the play the Maccabees have selected for their big jubilee show to be given Friday, January 28, at the Paris Grand. No better comedy has ever been written than "A Runaway Match." The play will be presented by local talent and judging from the demand for tickets the capacity of the Grand will be tested. In addition to the regular play, specialties will be introduced between each act by Harry Saloshin and others. Music will be furnished by the High School Orchestra, and the members of the Maccabees guarantee a good show and time to all who attend.

Best Stomach Remedy Free

It is an old saying that if the stomach is sound the whole body is safe, because so much depends upon the proper working of the stomach. Many persons find themselves with a disorder of the stomach which produces dyspepsia or a peculiar state of biliousness.

If you suffer from both stomach trouble and constipation you are on the way to a very serious disease. From just such conditions come appendicitis, rheumatism, skin diseases and similar disorders, because the waste matter that should have been expelled from the system through the bowels has found its way into the blood and vitiated it. What is needed at this point is not simply a violent cathartic tablet or salt, which usually does more harm than good, but a gentle laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which people have been using for these ailments for nearly a quarter of a century. It cured J. C. Lanham, of Warrensburg, Mo., of stomach trouble of long standing, also William Voll, of 903 Ellison St., Louisville, Ky., who had the trouble for fifteen years.

However, if you have stomach trouble you want to know from personal experience what Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will do for you. If so, send your name to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you. You are urged to send for the free bottle, as the results from it will be the best recommendation of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Then you will do as over two million people did last year—go to your druggist and buy a regular bottle at 50 cents or $1, according to the size you prefer. We could mention hundreds and hundreds of families who are never without it. You can never tell when some member of the family will need a laxative, and then no time should be lost taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Rises in His Seat in Congress to Defend Kentucky from Libelous Charges—Defends Tobacco Organizations—Offers Amendment to Sherman Anti-Trust Law.

In the House, at Washington, Monday, Representative Cantrill, of the Seventh Kentucky district, rose to a question of personal privilege to reply to an article in Sunday's Washington Times severely arraigning the American Society of Equity and the Burley Tobacco Society. Mr. Cantrill also introduced a bill to amend the Sherman anti-trust act so as to exempt from the operations of the law associations of farmers and live stock producers and laboring men who seek to protect themselves by organizations. The bill conforms to the act of the Kentucky Legislature of 1908, known as the pooling act.

The article in the Washington Times of Sunday purports to give a thorough exposition of the tobacco societies in Kentucky, and asserts that even now a state of war exists. It viciously attacks the Burley Tobacco Society and the Court of Appeals.

The article also quotes certain statistics, relative to the price of tobacco, used by Mr. Cantrill in his speeches in Kentucky.

"These figures are declared to be false, but every tobacco grower in Kentucky knows," says Mr. Cantrill, "that they are accurate," and the gross misrepresentation of his speeches, Mr. Cantrill says, "forces him to arise to a question of the highest privilege." Mr. Cantrill Sunday night made the following statement:

"It is hard to understand the motive which prompts the scurrilous and libelous article appearing in the Sunday edition of the Washington Times relative to the tobacco pool and Society of Equity and the Burley Tobacco Society in Kentucky unless it be a part of a great scheme to break down all organizations of farmers everywhere in this country and prevent them from securing a decent price from their products. In a recent interview I stated that the farmers were not asking any more for their products than a fair price.

"The Sherman Anti-Trust law has been on the statute books for some twenty years, but it was a dead letter until the farmers began to organize. There seems now a well directed plan to crush the farmer by prosecution under this act. Corporate interests have long oppressed the farmers of this country, but in recent years the farmer has been thinking for himself and deriving for himself the rights exercised by all other lines of business—the right to organize and protect his interests.

"If the farmer is to be crushed by operation of the Sherman Anti-Trust law then I favor its repeal or amendment and to place the question squarely before the American people, I will introduce in the House the following bill so that farmers of this great nation can tell by watching future events which political parties and which members of Congress are their friends."

Mr. Cantrill's bill amending the Sherman Anti Trust act is as follows:

"An act to amend an act entitled an act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies, approved July 2, 1890, and being Chapter 647, Vol. 26, of the United States Statutes at Large.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, that an act entitled an act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraint and monopoly, approved July 2, 1890, and being Chapter 647, Vol. 26, of the United States Statutes at Large, be amended by adding to the last section of said act the following:

"The provisions of this act shall in no case apply to any contract or combination in any form the purpose of which is to secure to laborers or employees a reasonable compensation for their labor nor to any contract or combination in any form the purpose of which is to secure to growers or producers of agricultural products or live stock a reasonable price therefor, but such contracts and combinations are expressly exempted and excepted from the provisions of this act."

With reference to the article in the Washington Times Sunday, Gov. Willson said:

"My belief is that for twenty years we have not had a year in which there have been so few disturbances in Kentucky as in the past year. The article is almost entirely based on the happenings of two years ago."

$1,000 Tax too High.

The Appellate Court Tuesday affirmed the Jefferson Criminal Court in the case of the city of Louisville against P. R. Pooley.

The appeal was from the judgment of the court below holding unconstitutional Sections 63 and 64 of the license ordinance of the city of Louisville, fixing a license of $1,000 each on the business of money lending or chattel mortgage or salary.

The court says that while the court ordinarily will not interfere with the discretion of the licensing body, this rule is subject to the limitation that the license tax imposed shall not amount to prohibition of any useful or legitimate occupation.

By a reversal of the Spencer Circuit Court in the case of Central University of Kentucky against Cox's executors, the university gets $1,000 from the estate.

EIGHTY BURIALS

In Paris Cemetery During 1909—

Nineteen Die of General Debility

—Marked Improvement in Cemetery Grounds—Notes From Superintendent Smith's Report.

Superintendent William Smith of the Paris Cemetery Company has filed his report for the year 1909 with President John T. Hinton.

Mr. Smith recommends that the matter of requiring burial permits to be issued should be taken up by the proper authorities, as such documents will facilitate the keeping of correct data regarding each person interred.

The total number of persons interred during the year 1909 aggregated 80, their deaths resulting from the following causes: Heart trouble 8, rheumatism 2, accidentally shot 1, typhoid fever 4, consumption 7, pneumonia 10, paralysis 7, burns 2, stomach trouble 1, Bright's disease 1, brain fever 2, drowned 1, cancer 1, diphtheria 2, appendicitis 1, dropsy 1, congestion the liver 2, unknown 5, general debility 19.

Of the latter 19, their ages ranged from 60 to 90 years.

Many improvements have been made, according to Superintendent Smith's report, in the filling in of depressions, grading, and keeping in repair fences and road beds. Unusual care has been given the grounds in keeping the lawns mowed and watered, resulting in a marked appreciation by the owners of lots, who, throughout the spring, summer and fall, remembered their dead by keeping foliage plants and blooming flowers on their graves.

No Grading Done.

From various causes of delay not a single pound of the 1909 pooled tobacco of the Burley Tobacco Society has yet been sampled and graded at the tobacco headquarters at Lexington, and therefore the society is yet unable to accurately estimate the approximate value of the tobacco in the pool. The failure to grade the tobacco up to this time has been due to several causes, chief among them being the lateness in perfecting the pool and the disarrangement of the Society's affairs incident to the removal of the headquarters from Winchester to Lexington.

It was stated Tuesday at the society's headquarters that the plan is to have samples from all the counties in the Burley district shipped to Lexington for the purpose of being properly graded. At Winchester the Society had a large building which it used for storing and grading the samples, but so far the society has not completed arrangements for any building in Lexington for this purpose. It is expected, however, that negotiations will be opened soon for a suitable building to be used as a sample house, and as soon as this is done orders will be issued to the various county boards of control to get the types ready to be shipped to be graded.

J. F. Walton, of Lexington, was appointed official grader for the society, and he will be assisted by Mr. H. B. Evans, of Carroll county. Mr. Walton has been the official grader for the society ever since its formation and he is an expert in this line. He sampled and graded the bulk of the 1906 and 1907 pooled crop, and when those crops were sold and delivered to the American Tobacco Company and the independent Mr. Walton was appointed by the society as its representative to inspect and superintend the delivery.

Religion of the Heart.

Here is a pretty story from life told by the Morrill, Kansas, News: "He was the worst boy in school; she was the teacher. She was angered by his stubbornness; he was defiant. She took him to the hall for punishment. Angriily she administered the penalty and—then somehow a great wave of pity for the boy swept over her. She looked at the worn coat of the little fellow; she thought of the frail body deprived of nourishing food; she thought of the hard and loveless home and of the starved soul of the poor kid. Tears sprang to the teacher's eyes as the boy waited for further punishment. Then he saw the tears. His own eyes grew moist and overflowed. Thinking of how the poor boy had no chance, in an impulse of love she put her arms around the boy and they cried together. That is religion. She and the boy both found it."

—Miss Gilmore, of Maysville, entered M. F. C. Tuesday. She is a cousin of Mrs. U. S. G. Pepper.

—Mr. Robert Collier and family, of Mt. Sterling, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. M. R. Collier.

—Mr. Wm. Dykes has secured the contract for digging the post holes for the Electric Light Company.

—The examinations closed at M. F. C. Thursday, after being in progress a week. All the young ladies made good averages, which speaks well for the girls and faculty.

—We will call for your laundry and return it. The Bourbon Steam Laundry guarantees good work.

LOUIS VIMONT, Agent

—The invoicing of Mr. C. W. Howard to Mr. S. H. Endicott, began early Monday morning and was concluded Wednesday afternoon. The doors are now open and Mr. Endicott will be glad to see the old patrons and many new ones at once.

—NOTICE—The old firm of Smith & Wadell desire accounts settled up at once. Kindly pay attention to this request.

—Mr. Thos. Howard, while returning from Paris Monday in the automobile of Mr. W. D. McIntyre, on passing a wagon on the road, a man by the name of Wells shot a hole in one of the tires of his machine. The matter was reported at once on his return to town. A warrant was issued and served later by Constable J. H. Linville. Wells had been to Paris and had been drinking, shooting merely for the pleasure of it and not because his horses were frightened.

—NOTICE—We would consider it a great favor if all those owing us accounts would settle at once as prompt settlements will assist us greatly at present.

MILLER &amp; BEST.

—Mrs. W. G. McClintock and children, of Paris, Mrs. Eddie Young, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dorsey and son, of Carlisle, attended the funeral of little William Butler, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Butler, here Monday.

—The third number of the Lyceum Course, Friday evening, Jan. 21, Fred E. Baker in his popular lecture, "The Lucky Number." Mr. Baker is endowed by nature with a good physique, a resonant voice and a ready tongue. He is fitted by temperament with a keen appreciation of the praiseworthy, the beautiful and the humorous in life, an eager student of men and books, acquiring readily the gist of things. Mr. Baker naturally finds the lecture platform a field of usefulness. Having a hobby, in which he takes great delight, he is able to arouse interest and maintain it in those subjects which he offers to the public.

Receivership Suit Fails.

The Court of Appeals will not be asked to again hear the suit of the Clark county plaintiff to have a receiver appointed for the Burley Tobacco Society. The court several weeks ago dissolved the order of Judge Benton, of the Clark Circuit Court, placing the society in receivers' charge, and notice was given them that until Monday, January 17, would be given to file petition for rehearing. The petition was not filed, and now there will be no receiver on that suit.

Other similar suits are perding in other courts. Three hundred thousand dollars, tied up by Judge Benton's decision, will now be transferred from Winchester banks to Lexington and disbursed to growers. The suit was to have a receiver appointed for the pools of 1906 and 1907 and an accounting of all receipts and expenditures, plaintiffs alleging some money had been wrongfully spent.

Georgetown Court.

The weather was damp Monday at Georgetown Court and the streets full of mud. There was a fair crowd present. Auctioneer B. B. Peak reports 150 cattle on the market. The best sold at 4 3-4 cents per pound; cows sold at $2.55 per 100 pounds; calves $17 per head. A large number of mules on the market. They sold at from $130 to $225, according to quality.

Paulhan Makes a New Record.

By carrying one passenger in his bipane on a twenty-two-mile country trip, from Aviation Field, at Los Angeles, Cal., to a point a mile out over the ocean, by taking another passenger on a twelve-mile flight over the fields, and by taking three other passengers, one at a time, on short flights, Louis Paulhan Wednesday established a new world's record for heavier than air machines. William Randolph Hearst, the newspaper publisher and another newspaper man, were among his passengers.

The Union Life Insurance Co.

Furnishes liberal, honest and safe policies on any person, male or female, same rate, ages taken 15 to 65 inclusive. I would appeal especially to those who are heads of families to take insurance, not simply to get the business on my books, or with any company, but I urge you to do so for the best interests of dear ones dependent upon you. For an exclusive, new and very attractive feature in insurance, I would be pleased to explain to you the Savings Endowment Policy of the Union. If interested, please, call or write.

Big Money Invested.

Executive officers of the principal life insurance companies of the United States, representing 20,000,000 policy holders and nearly $4,000,000,000 in assets, began a conference in Washington at the third annual meeting of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents.

Memorial Services.

Memorial services in honor of the one hundred and second anniversary of the birth of General Robert E. Lee were held in the Circuit Court room at the court house, Wednesday afternoon at 12 o'clock, by the Richard Hawes chapter, D. of C. Mrs. Russell Mann, President, presided. The audience was the largest that ever assembled on an occasion of this kind in Paris. Hanging on the wall in the rear of the Judge's desk was a life-size portrait of the famous statesman and soldier decorated in bunting and Confederate flags.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive, of the Second Presbyterian church, and Mrs. C. C. Leer, a member of the chapter, introduced the speaker of the day, Prof. N. A. Gordon, of Lexington. Mrs. Leer said that fifty years ago, in the same town, she was a schoolmate of Prof. Gordon; that when hostilities broke out he left the school room and beside of his parents and as a mere lad, fifteen years of age, volunteered his services in defense of the Southland. Mrs. Leer spoke of the intervening years before she again met Prof. Gordon at the Confederate reunion last year, when he answered the roll call a gray haired veteran.

Prof. Gordon's address was a beautiful tribute to the statesmanship and brilliant military record of General Lee. He told of his personal acquaintance with General Lee and the love and esteem in which he was held by the people of Richmond, Va.; how the church bells told of his passing away and the inexpressible sorrow manifested upon the news of his death. The address was highly enjoyed by the large audience.

RELIGIOUS.

—Elder Carey E. Morgan will be in his pulpit at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening. His subject in the evening will be, "Stout Hearts for High Climate." This is the fifth of the special topics of the series of Sunday evening services.

—Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive will preach as usual Sunday morning and evening at the Second Presbyterian church.

Compromise on the Unit Bill.

It was reported from Frankfort Wednesday night that a compromise may be effected between the "wet" and "dry" Senators as to the committee assignment of the county unit bill. Eli H. Brown, Jr., has been selected as an intermediary. The "dry" force prefer the Committee on Kentucky Statutes, while the "wets" are willing to have it referred to the Judiciary Committee. At any event the measure will not be referred to the committee on Religion and Morals, which was said to have been objectionable to the leaders in favor of the measure.

Goat Raising.

The Government has taken steps to encourage goat-raising, confident that it can be made a profitable industry. There is over $31,000,000 worth of goat skins imported into this country every year.

James on Committee.

The joint caucus to select the congressional committee that will investigate the Ballinger-Pinchot charges Wednesday night chose Representatives McCall, of Massachusetts; Cline, of Pennsylvania; Denby, of Michigan; and Madison, of Kansas, Republicans, and James of Kentucky, and Lloyd, of Missouri, Democrats. Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, led a bolt of disgruntled Republicans.

Father Voting With Son.

Senator B. M. Arnett, of Nicholasville, a "dry Senator," has come over to the "wets" and is voting with his son, Senator Lewis W. Arnett, of Covington, who is a strong liquor man.

Tuberculosis Statistics.

On the basis of 157,000 deaths yearly from tuberculosis in the United States, the National Association for the Study and Eradication of Tuberculosis computes that there are 684,934 persons constantly sick with this disease. Allowing only $500 as the average earnings of the workingman who died, the annual loss to the country from the ranks of labor alone is over $14,000,000 each year.

Great St Gorge Ever Known.

The Wolf Creek gorge, below Louisville, broke Tuesday. It did not wait to be blown to fragments by dynamite in the hands of United States engineers. Warm rains, heavy winds and the force of millions of tons of "back water" served as the gigantic ice tong which lifted the seventy-five mile ice gorge out of the river, turned it over, propped it back into place, and then sent it gracefully gliding down stream to the warm waters of the lower river or a final dissolution. Rivermen and old residents say it was the greatest gorge ever known in the Ohio river.

After Mike Kahoe for Manager.

Mike Kahoe, the well known catcher, who played the last two seasons with the American Association team of Washington, was here Tuesday in consultation with the officials of the Paris Base Ball Club. The Paris officials are anxious to employ Mr. Kahoe as manager of the home team and he is anxious to come to Paris if they can afford to pay the salary that a player of his class commands.

Mr. Kahoe began his baseball career in Paris in 1894, when at the close of the season the Paris team defeated the Cincinnati Reds by a score of 13 to 2. In that memorable contest Lawrence did the twirling for the Bourbonites, while Kahoe gave him faultless support behind the bat. Kahoe's work electrified the crowd, and since then he has had a warm place in the heart of every baseball fan in the Bourbon capital. Since 1894 he has played with the big league clubs. The Paris Club will make every effort to secure pledges for the required amount that it takes to secure Kahoe's signature to a contract. They are to let him know Sunday. It would certainly mean much to the success of the Paris Club next season to have a man of Kahoe's calibre at the head of the team.

"Drys" Lose Fight in Senate.

The county unit bill was reached in the Senate yesterday afternoon at 1:10 o'clock and president pro tem. Linn promptly referred it to the Committee on Religion and Morals.

Senator Thomas, of Bourbon, moved to refer it to the Committee on Internal Improvements. His motion was ruled out of order and he appealed from the decision of the chair.

After an hour's discussion in which Senator Thomas charged that the Religion and Morals Committee had been fixed to kill the county unit bill, the Senate sustained by a vote of 18 to 14 the ruling of President Linn in referring the bill to that committee and it goes there after a week's hard fight to prevent it.

War on Sparrows.

War has been declared by the Secretary of Agriculture at Washington upon the English sparrow, which, according to the department, "among birds is comparable to the rat among mammals." With this end in view, the department is circulating extensively a bulletin on how to destroy this "cunning, destructive and filthy bird."

Except in the destruction of weed-seed, there is nothing to be said in the sparrow's favor. On the other hand it destroys cherries, grapes, pears, garden seed, young vegetables, especially peas and lettuce. In addition it usurps the nests and destroys the eggs of the robin, wren, mockingbird and other useful native specimens. The most effective method of preventing the increase of sparrows is the destruction of their nests at ten or twelve days' intervals.

Read What the Cincinnati Papers Said of Billy:

FROM THE TIMES-STAR:

"Billy," a pleasing farce in three acts, was given at the Lyric Sunday night, as a sort of "filler in." Too bad that there isn't a week lying around somewhere that could be devoted to this happy skit. The action, all of which takes place on a New York-Havana liner, revolves about a set of false teeth and a love affair. The complications are so rapid and spontaneous that a laugh a minute was the result. Edgar Atchison-Ely did splendidly as the owner of the lost teeth; Jane Marbury was bewitchingly sweet and clever as the sister; while, as a matter of course, Mrs. Stuart Robson made the role of "Mrs. Sloane" altogether pleasing. The other parts were well taken and a refreshing season of comedy was the result.

FROM THE CINCINNATI POST:

"Billy" dropped into town for one performance Sunday night at the Lyric, and constituted a delightful evening's entertainment. It is a matter of regret that this genial farce did not make Cincinnati its abiding place for a longer term. It is written by George Cameron, the long de plume of Mrs. Sidney Drew, author of "Agnes," in which Nance O'Neal appeared for several seasons. Like all farces, it has for its basis a preposterous situation, and everything depends upon the manner in which the absurdities are worked out. One William Hargrave, a foot ball hero, has lost four teeth on a field of battle, and the vacancy is filled with artificial molars. The subject is a profound family secret, and he sails for Havana, with his sister, to become accustomed to his new acquisitions. On board are the girl he loves, her mother and his rival. He loses his teeth just after the boat sails, and cannot even pronounce the name of his lady love, Beatrice. There is much cuspid comedy and it is cleverly done both by author and cast. Edgar Atchison Ely takes the principal role, and does it effectively. He is surrounded by capable people. Jane Marbury, as Alice Hargrave, is excellent, and Mrs. Stuart Robson, as Mrs. Sloane, imparts a rare quality of comedy to the character. Marian Chapman is good to look upon, and she supplemented pulchritude by charm of manner. The other characters are well done. It is to be regretted that "Billy" was such a transient guest.

Testing Making of Gas.

The long considered plan of making coal gas in vertical instead of horizontal retorts is being tested on a large scale at St. Helens, England, and the results of the new plant are being compared with those of a very complete equipment, including 26 horizontal retorts ten feet long. With the cheap coal used, costing about $2 per ton, the old method yielded 10,000 cubic feet of gas per ton, and the new process gave 11,550 cubic feet. The new process yields more tar and ammonia, coke of higher selling price, and gas free from naphthalene, while it offers great economy in land and buildings, in labor and in wear and tear.

Exciting Balloon Trip.

After drifting for some time over the ocean, the balloon "Dick Ferris," carrying J. C. Mar, of Oakland, its pilot, and two women passengers, was brought to earth at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning near Redondo. The balloon ascended to a height of 7,000 feet, and was carried seaward by a current. When it was brought lower a land current was encountered and the landing was successfully made, says the Los Angeles, Cal., Special.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—G. W. Wilder, of this city, sold to Newton Taylor, of near town, nine head of farm mules for $1,800.

—Thomas McClintock, of Millersburg, bought in Bath and Montgomery counties in the last few days forty mules at from $150 to $210.

—The highest price for corn in many years is a result of a trade made last week at Brighton. Tom Adams, the well-known trader, bought of Josiah Moores two hundred barrels of corn for delivery next June, July and August at $4.50 per barrel.—Richmond Climax.

—Abnee & Mussinor, of this city, bought a number of tobacco crops the past week taking 10,000 pounds of tobacco from G. W. Wagner, at 15 cents per pound straight, and 11,500 pounds from Calvin Jones at 14 cents per pound straight. Messrs. Abnee & Mussinor have already shipped 1,200 hogheads of tobacco which is about one half of their present purchase.

—Kentucky leads all the States in tobacco grown, producing more than one third of the crop of the country. While some tobacco is produced in almost every State, less than one per cent of this country's crop is grown West of the Mississippi river, Texas being the only trans-Mississippi State in which the industry has gained much importance.

—In a summary of the report of the Directors of Agricultural Experiment Stations we find the following: At the Kentucky station it was found in work with the organism causing the rotting of tobacco that it is identical with one causing the rotting of cabbage. "It is believed," says the report "that the grading of tobacco seed for the stations and of farmers sending it into the station is having its effect on the tobacco of the State. The growing of tobacco seed under para bags to prevent crossing is also giving beneficial results."

Indorsement for Cantrill.

In the House at Frankfort, Tuesday, Representative Russell offered a joint resolution indorsing the amendment of the anti-trust act of July 2, 1890, introduced in the National House of Representatives by Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill, providing that the law be amended expressly to exempt organized labor and societies of growers or producers of agricultural products from its provisions. Copies of the petition passed are to be sent to every Senator and Representative from Kentucky.

Representative Russell spoke feelingly in behalf of his resolution, saying that the Cantrill amendment to the Sherman act would provide for organized labor and tobacco growers a weapon to use against trust aggrandizement. He moved the adoption of the resolution.

Unit Bill a Battering Ram.

The county unit struggle in the Senate promises to be a continuous performance from now on until some disposition of it is made by reference to a committee. Then it will doubtless rest for awhile. If it gets into the hands of a committee which is unfavorable, it looks as if there is little chance of its seeing daylight again. Even in that event, it can be depended upon to have a strong bearing on other Legislation.

The temperance supporters, especially in the upper house, are determined not to take defeat without a bitter struggle. The effect which the enactment or non-enactment of a unit bill will have on the two leading parties, in the future, especially the Democratic, is now being generally discussed.

The overshadowing importance of this issue is demonstrated in the fact that little else is being talked of in Frankfort. The crowds in the Senate galleries, and in the lobby, Tuesday, attested the interest being felt in the legislative scraps over the bill.

Important Measures.

Among the new bills at Frankfort which promise to attract attention as time passes is the one introduced by Senator Bertram Tuesday, providing for the appointment by the Secretary of State of four bank examiners, two to be Republican and two Democratic in politics. It is urged in behalf of this bill that the developments of the past few years in banking circles demonstrate the need of such examiners. Another measure of importance is that of Representative Shanks providing for a State Board of Accounting. The object, Mr. Shanks says is to institute a uniform system of accounting of all public officers over the State, from the highest to the lowest. He asserts that the State would save thousands of dollars annually through such a measure. The bill of Senator Combs for a tuberculosis sanitarium is one which will have strong backing. There seems a sentiment in favor of all measures looking to the cure or eradication of consumption, but the appropriations asked, $120,000 for buildings, and $50,000 annually for maintenance, promise to make it hard to push the bill through.

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Paris Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Paris readers.

Mrs. J. C. Kenney, W. Main street, Carlisle, Ky., says: "I was bothered for twenty years by kidney trouble.
For some time I would be in the best of health, then an attack would make its appearance and for months would be in constant misery. Sometimes my back pained me so terribly that I thought it was broken and the passages of the kidney secretions were painful and too frequent, annoying me greatly. Mr. Kenney, seeing Doan's Kidney pill advertised, procured box and insisted on my trying them. As I had heard a great deal about the cures they were performing, I thought they might help me and began taking them.
Before I had finished the contents of one box, my kidneys were strengthened, I was free from pain and felt much better in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills cannot be praised too highly."

Meeting of Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeder's Association at Lexington Tuesday afternoon all of the officials were elected as follows:

Richard C. Stoll, President; R. C.
Estill, first vice president; Col. James E. Clay, second vice president; Horace
W. Wilson, secretary; Lexington City
National Bank treasurer; John R.
Allen, Jr., V. Harkness, John R. Haggard, J. W. Stoll and Louis des Cognets, directors.

This makes the fifteenth time that Secretary Wilson has been elected to manage the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association and the eightteenth year that he has been elected to serve as secretary of racing associations. He is universally regarded as the dean of American secretaries and is the last of the famous big four—King, Fastig, Tipton and Wilson—now in harness, and by many is regarded as the most successful of them all.

The financial report for the year 1909 showed a small profit and a decrease as compared with 1908. The decrease was ascribed to the great loss entailed by the two handicaps which the association opened in deference to the wishes of many horsemen who did not enter when the race was offered, causing a loss to the association of about $3,000.

The stockholders voted unanimously to cut out all handicaps under the present plan and left it to the discretion of Secretary Wilson to devise some more practical method.

Secretary Wilson was authorized to announce a renewal of the famous Kentucky Futurity for foals of 1910 under changed conditions. The matter of changing the conditions of this colt race was discussed owing to the continued opposition of the officials of the American Association of Trotting Horse Breeders in their New York meeting in November to the 3 in 5 plan of racing to a finish. The discussion was cut short by a stentorian call for "the question" and it was unanimously voted to continue the Futurity under its original condition and with the slogan "may the best colt win."

Governors Hear Willson's Ideas.

Governors from thirty States of the Union met in the National Capital to discuss problems of State and of National interest Tuesday.

Governor Willson, of Kentucky,
chairman of the Committee on Arrangements for the conference was in the chair. In a brief introductory speech he referred to the first conference of State heads, invited in May, 1908, by President Roosevelt to meet in the White House.

Governor Willson declared that in his opinion no better means of devising improved and uniform State Legislation could have been found than for the Chief Executives of the States to come together as they had and in a friendly way, with partisan feeling forgotten, talk over together the questions in which they were all interested.

SOVEREIGNS OF THE REGION

Splendidly Led Baboons Ate the Crops
in Nigeria So Fast Natives Gave Up Farming.

In many parts of Nigeria, and especially among the hill regions of the northern provinces, baboons are one of the greatest plagues to the farmer and a source of menace to property and even to life. A protectorate officer while engaged in business in a mountain village was informed by the local queen that her people could not continue their farming owing to the raids of baboons.

During the absence of the men a few weeks previously these beasts had actually come into the heart of the village and destroyed the crops, according to the Wide World Magazine. The natives are in constant dread of them and continually fear for the safety of their children.

Sir William Wallace relates that he has seen droves of 50 to 100 of these animals all in single file, and that lately he himself shot two enormous brutes who were grinning at him from the cliffs. They utter a nerve shattering and horrid bark.

They possess a regular system of defense and always have signallers out to watch for the approach of a possible enemy. These scouts are always the biggest monkeys and they signal by barks to their comrades when strangers are approaching.

Shoemaker's Candles.

I well remember some 70 years since, says a correspondent of the Dickensian, seeing flat candles in use.
To produce what was known as the flat candle, which was also sometimes called "shoemaker's candle," two newly made "dips" were pressed close to each other, while soft, and then again lowered into the hot fat, thus holding them together as one candle with two wicks. The size could then be increased if desired. This flat candle was most generally used by shoe-makers and tailors, but was made use of in some households whenever an extra bright light for working or reading was required.

Samples of Air at Great Heights.

Samples of air at a height of nearly nine miles have been recently obtained and examined for the presence of the rare gases. The collecting apparatus, carried by a large balloon, is a series of vacuum tubes, each drawn out to a fine point at one end.
At the desired height an electro-magnetic device, connected with each tube and operated by a barometer, breaks off the point of the tube, admitting the air. A few minutes later, a second contact sends a current through a platinum wire around the broken end, melting the glass and sealing the tube. All the samples obtained show argon and neon, but no helium was found in air from above six miles.

Great State of Texas.

The 25 states which compose the home land of the German empire, including Alsace-Lorraine, have an area of 208,270 square miles with a population of 60,641,278. Texas has an area of 265,700 square miles. After the German empire had been laid down upon Texas in the remainder space of 57,510 square miles it would be feasible to tuck in all of England and Wales with the exception of the tiny county of Rutland. Or if that arrangement should promise to impose too much work upon the Texas Rangers it would be possible to include the Netherlands, Belgium and Denmark and Switzerland. Still Texas would have room for a few stragglers.

"Billy" at the Paris Grand To-night.THEATRICAL."BILLY" AT THE GRAND TO-NIGHT.

"Billy," the new three act farce, comes to the Paris Grand tonight direct from its long run at Daly's Theatre in New York, at which theatre the Shuberts brought out this amusing play at the beginning of last summer. A commentary on the popularity of "Billy" is the fact that it remained in New York during the heated term.

The farce is concerned regarding the misfortune which comes to a football hero. Some months before the opening of the play, the same hero was met with an accident the nature of which is not divulged. The first act shows til the finish of the third act does the author take the audience into his secret.

As a matter of fact, while in a game of football, Billy loses four front teeth. During the period of enforced idleness, during which time he is in retirement. He is fitted out with a set of incisors.

Shortly after the "Florida" sets to sea, a steward bumps into the hero knocking him to the deck, and in falling Billy loses the substitutes. All of the three acts are laid on the upper deck of the "Florida," the scene, by the way, being one of striking beauty.

"MR. HOPKINSON."

Made famous in an afternoon was the unusual case of the English comedy "Mr. Hopkinson" and its comedian Dallas Welford, the original "Bunky

Dallas Welford as "Mr. Hopkinson."

Door "e."

The play and company made its first entrance to New York City, at the Hackett Theatre practically unannounced; the sole advertisement read "Mr. Hopkinson," the theatre was not half filled at a matinee opening; but the hit was so pronounced that the evening performance displayed the S. R. O. sign which continued without a break, matinee and night for over a year.

For two years the same success attend the comedy in London, England; while at the present time four companies are touring Great Britain, and for the past three years a company has been touring Australia to packed houses.

"Mr. Hopkinson" with an all-star English company headed by Dallas Welford, the original, and an elaborate production will be seen at the Paris Grand on Tuesday, Jan. 25.

Insure with W. O. Hinton in Prompt paying non-union companies.

Wool Growers to Meet.

The wool growers of Bourbon county will meet Saturday afternoon in the court house at 2 o'clock for a discussion of the proposed pool of the wool clip of the county for 1910. The Bourbon board of control of the wool growers association will meet in executive session immediately following the meeting of the growers.

Must Buy Stamps.

People living along the rural free delivery routes all over the country have been in the habit of putting unstamped letters in their mail boxes with enough pennies to pay postage and the carriers expected to buy the stamps and put them on the letters. The Postoffice Department is anxious to break up this habit and a circular has been sent out to all postoffices urging them to do all in their power to discourage such practices. The reason given is that it unnecessarily delays the carrier and in getting the pennies or other coins out of the boxes he frequently drops them on the ground, especially in cold weather when his hands are cold, and thus he not only loses time, but money, in doing something that the senders of the letters should do themselves, viz., stamp their own letters.

Burley Committee Go to Washington.

To find out just what the Government is trying to do in conducting an investigation of the affairs of the Burley Tobacco Society, the executive committee of the society has gone to Washington to see Attorney General Wickham. The committee met in Lexington Tuesday afternoon and went from that city on the C. and O. Tuesday evening. Col. John R. Allen, of Lexington, went along as the attorney for the committee to answer any legal questions which may be raised. The trip to Washington was made quietly and without any blare of trumpets, although there was not any real effort to keep secret the fact that the trip was to be taken. Col. Allen said: "We simply want to know where we stand in this matter. So many convicting reports have emanated from Washington and appeared in the press. If the society is going to be prosecuted or persecuted we want to know it, so that we can prepare ourselves. The officers of the Burley Society believe that it was best to go direct to the fountain head of the national department to ascertain the status of affairs. They have a right to know who is investigating the reports of pending prosecution, and a right to present their side of the matter before the Government's officials. They will see Attorney General Wickham, and hope to get some definite understanding of the matter. Just what other steps will be taken will probably develop after they get on the ground."

Hard for the Monkeys.

A boost in the price of peanuts on the wholesale markets in New York indicates that this food is to do its share toward making the cost of living dearer. The price has advanced 1 cent to 2 cents a pound in the last two weeks, and the demand is good.

Senator Linn Becomes Governor

Precisely at 10:54 o'clock Wednesday morning, and while Conn Linn, president pro tem. of the Senate, was presiding over the session of that body, McKenzie Todd, the Governor's secretary, appeared on the floor of the Senate Chamber and announced that Lieut. Gov. William H. Cox, who had been acting Governor in the absence of Gov. Willson, had crossed the line over into Ohio at 10:05, and it became his duty to inform the president pro tem. of the Senate that he became Acting Governor of Kentucky from that time until the return of either Lieut. Gov. Cox or Gov. Willson.

A cheer on the part of the Senators and spectators followed this announcement. After thanking those present in the Senate chamber for their manifestation of pleasure over his elevation to the office of Governor, if only for a few hours, Senator Linn designated as his successor in the Senate chair Senator W. V. Eaton, of McCracken county.

Soon after Senator Eaton had taken the chair of the presiding officer he entertained a motion, and it was unanimously adopted, providing a recess of fifteen minutes, during which time the members of the Senate in a body, called upon the first Democratic Governor the State has had in two years and paid their respects.

Senator Linn welcomed his colleagues in the spacious receiving-room connected with that portion of the Capitol building set apart for the Governor. Acting Governor Linn was the first to hold a reception in this room, as it was furnished only a few days ago. The Senators filed, two abreast, into the room, and separated, apart lining up on one side of the room and a part on the other, with Acting Gov. Linn in the center.

W. V. Eaton, acting president pro tem. in a few words explained to Acting Gov. Linn the purpose of the visit. Senator Linn carried himself with all the easy grace of a real Governor, and in a brief speech which reflected his keen appreciation of the honor conferred upon him, made those in the Governor's reception-room glad that they were there.

Date for Farmers' Institute.

Dates for the State Farmers' Institute which is to be held in Frankfort were announced yesterday by the Commissioner of Agriculture's office for February 23, 24 and 25. The dates were agreed upon and M. C. Rankin, Commissioner of Agriculture, who is now in Washington, authorized the announcement of the dates before he left Frankfort Tuesday night. Farmers from all over Kentucky will go to Frankfort for the State Institute and the meeting will be one of the most interesting which has ever been held.

Sold Diseased Cows.

Stanley Milward, of the Kentucky Board of Control, passed through Washington Wednesday night en route to Albany, N. Y., where he will file a claim of two thousand dollars' damages against the State of New York for diseased Holstein Friesia cows bought for Lakeland. The New York Veterinary Department said the seventy-two cows were in good condition, while twenty-two were found, after reaching Lakeland, to be tubercular.
